REJUICING AT IRVING HALL.

These men are all Republicans and anti-Tammany Democrats. Their appointment does much toward revolutionizing city polties. It robs Tammany of the patronage worth having it possessed. There was great rejoicing among Irving-Hall Demoerats, who this evening are having a jubitime Republicans profess to be dissatisfied, saying it was bad politics for their men to ater into the combination, for now that Keliy's political power is gone harmony will result in the Democratic ranks. The this course leave the Republicans free to pass any laws relative to the city or its charter in the Legislature. Many of them are beginning to call for the expulsion of Kelly from Tammany and the reorganization of the Hall. The general opinion in political circles is that Kelly is dead politically. More than ever is he accessed of wrecking the party in the late election. His organ, the Express, says tonight: "The deed has been done. The conspiracy between Edward Cooper and Roscoc Conkitor, backed by Bennett's corruption fund, has prevailed. Corruption, long rampant, is now triumphant in the City Half. Edward Cooper, elected by a corrupt combination with Republicans, has now carried out the terms of a worse arrangement than he was elected upon, turned traitor to his party once more, committed an act of periody for which there is no name, and placed unfit men in the most important municipal offices. The cold weather here has stopped oyster catching and other out door work.

A large quantity of corn is yet standing in the fields, owing to the scarcity of hands. John Gustavson, of the ship William M. McGilvery, a native of Finland, died at St Vincent's Hospital of injuries received by falling into the hold of that yessel. Good skating to-day.

From the Indians. A COLONY THREATENED WITH MASSACRE.

Kansas City, December 11 -Payne's co ony remained in camp on the Territory lin last night, flinked by Lu utenant Mason and 48 oluecoats of the Fourth cavalry. Mason by invitation, visited Payne's headquarter and read his orders to the assembled cold nists, after which Payne delivered an ad aress, thanking General Pope for his milltary escort, but notifying Lieutenant Mason that it was the intention of the colouists to move into Okishoma at every bazard, There was a manifest good feeling and fraternizing between the troops and the immi received the following proposals for lightcall the stupidity of the Democrats, who by this course leave the Republicans free to grints. When the correspondent left camp Stars and Stripes floated at the right of the line. The immigrants are nerved to the determination to go to Oklahoma at any cost, and should the troops oppos stating that the report of his speech was were obtained and fastened to the limb of a or, as anticipated, kill their horses, or should tree, and a cart with the prisoners in it was attempt to destroy their outfits, there will probably be a bloody conflict. The colonists broke camp at 10 o'clock A. M. and ar moving westward on the Kansas line. All they desire is that Congress should act with promptness and decision in using the status of the ceded lands. Hundreds of colonisis are moving towards the Territory from other points.
